INDUS Launches New Website

San Diego, CA, March 13, 2018: INDUS Technology, Inc. (INDUS) a Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB), Government Support Services provider, launched a new website today. The site includes a new, simplified look and ability to rapidly obtain the information historically most often searched for with ease. The new website includes access on the home page to INDUS' current Hot Jobs, including title and primary location, providing a direct link to the requisition/description from the title. In addition to open position, the Careers link provides ready access to the list of significant benefits provided by INDUS to their employees. The site also provide access to taps that describe Who We are, What We Do, Contract Vehicles, Contact Information and the ability for employees to sign in for access INDUS' SharePoint, Timecards, Learning Center and more.

Boompah helped design the new site. Boompah is a product design and web development agency based in Toronto, Montreal, and Winnipeg. Their services include User Research, Web Design, Web Development, and Content Strategy. They empower businesses to improve their online experiences by taking a human-centered design approach. With clients in various industries including Defense, Government, B2B, B2C, eCommerce, Online Publishing, Professional Services, and Information Services, they can be reached via their website at boompah.com, or contacting Ryan Bollenbach at ryan@boompah.com. We hope you will stop by our new site at www.industechnology.com, and follow us on Twitter (@INDUSTechSD), Facebook (TeamINDUS) and LinkedIn.
